WCCO News/Talk 8•3•0 has been the region's number one source for news since 1924. We keep you up-to-the-minute with news reports at the top and bottom of every hour, including national news from CBS and traffic and agribusiness reports. The award-winning WCCO news team includes News Director Kit Borgman, veteran state capitol reporter Eric Eskola, morning news editor Steve Murphy, afternoon news editor Rich Holter, weekend news editor Bruce Hagevik, Ray Christensen, Telly Mamayek, Dick Chapman, and Brooke Aulvin, Tim Ryan and Peter Scofield.

WEATHER

WCCO's three full-time meteorologists, Bill Endersen, Karen Filloon and Mike Lynch, now provide even more frequent weather forecasts and updates. And no other station covers severe weather like we do -- another important reason why WCCO has been the region's first and best choice for weather for nearly 70 years.

WCCO features the warmest and most topical conversation in Twin Cities radio. It starts each weekday from 6 to 10 with the Good Morning Show, featuring Roger Erickson, Dave Lee and Charlie Boone, followed by the Ruth Koscielak Show from 10 to noon. In the afternoons, it's the John Williams Show from 1 to 3 and the Cannon Mess with Steve Cannon from 3 to 6. SportsNight with Mike Woodley airs on non-Twins nights from 7 to 9, with Dark Star's NightTalk rounding out the day from 9 until 1 a.m.

SPORTS

WCCO is the long-time radio home of the Minnesota Twins and the University of Minnesota football and basketball Gophers. But our coverage doesn't stop there. We're also the home of the region's most listened-to sports reports from the best-known sports broadcasters, including Sid Hartman, who provides daily commentaries and is the co-host of the Sunday Sports Huddle; Mark Rosen, who provides daily sports reports and commentaries; Mike Woodley, who hosts SportsNight and provides regular sports reports; Sports Huddle co-host Dave Mona; Twins broadcasters John Gordon and Herb Carneal; and Gophers broadcasters Ray Christensen and Paul Flatley.
