SPEAKING OUT Johnny Canton

Say, how about last weekend spotlighting the Beatles past and present! Mucho thanks to Jimmy Reed for all of the effort he put into it. Speaking of the Beatles, John Lennon has been talking a great deal recently about all the lessons he learned during the reign of the Beatles. He has been interviewed most recently by "Rolling Stone" and a quick synopsis is - if his musicianship was deep, his thinking outside of music has been shallow. In the meantime, George Harrison says, "All Things Must Pass" and it's Harrison, not Lennon or McCartney, who is now making the best music of all!

Really sorry to hear Tom Fogerty of the super Creedence Clearwater Revival has departed the group. He is the brother of John Fogerty, who, admittedly, is the real 'guts' of the group. However, could this lead to the break-up of one of the most profitable music money-machines in history?

A British company has refused to distribute the new Eric Burdon & War LP, "Black Man's Burdon" due to offensive lyrics to Queen Elizabeth. Meanwhile, Burdon and War will separate following their European tour - Burdon to produce films and War to record for United Artists.

Don't forget to listen good to this coming WDGY Weekend - Twin Cities Music. It'll be produced by WDGY's King Michael and will feature many of the artists who have made the music scene in the Twin Cities so exciting in the past and right now.
