LISTEN GOOD . . . . . by Michael

. . . . Excuse me while I shed a few tears for the passing of a most wonderful summer. Oh, I know we still have many many days of sun and fun left, but yet it's not really summer in the true sense. Schools and colleges are in session, extra days at the lake are just memories, and that special summer friend is just a quiet thought. Summer and all its warmth is such a beautiful time here in Minnesota. To you summer of '71 . . . thank you for being a MOST WONDERFUL SUMMER.

The music thing gets more exciting with each passing day and the hit music is really happening. COVEN is right on with the Billy Jack music, "ONE TIN SOLDIER." LIGHTHOUSE has a stone smash with "ONE FINE MORNING." Women's lib, of sorts, with LAURA LEE and "WOMEN'S LOVE RIGHTS." And more girl music with FANNY and "CHARITY BALL." By the way, a guy whom I have admired as a writer for some time now has his own hit. I'm speaking of KRIS KRISTOFFERSON and "LOVING HER WAS EASIER." Also, welcome back to some folks who have hits again, bigger and better than ever: JOAN BAEZ, PAUL STOOKEY, TOMMY ROE, LOU RAWLS and PAUL ANKA. HIT PEOPLE WITH HIT MUSIC. WDGy is truly MUSIC RADIO.

Since I can't have you all over to my place to see the many pictures I took while on vacation I'll just say "SORRY" and wish you could have been there. The picture on the front is one of my very own "bod" at the Grand Canyon. (Sure would hold a lot of nickles!) Must say HI! and thanx to Phoenix . . . had a wonderful time.

Oh, by the way . . . if anyone asks where you've been . . . try this, I SPENT THE NIGHT WITH MICHAEL! You're all welcome, bring a friend.

Swing loose and hang easy . . . have a nice!

Michael
