Perhaps You Didn’t Know

That Evangeline Adams, whose talks on astrology are heard over Columbia, has received a letter from a man requesting the horoscope of his horse. He said the information was needed to determine whether or not the horse would cross the line a winner in a forthcoming race.

That Station WABC (key station of the Columbia Broadcasting System) stayed off the air for ten minutes recently because of an SOS. During those ten minutes the telephone operators at the studio received 188 queries concerning the cause of the trouble.

That among recent visitors at WABC (Columbia) were Sir Hubert and Lady Wilkins. Sir Hubert dropped in to renew an old friendship with Lowell Thomas and to hear Mr. Thomas broadcast his nightly news summary on the Literary Digest program. The explorer presented Mr. Thomas with a map of Sir Hubert’s proposed under-water journey in the Arctic.

That Ezra McIntosh, NBC announcer, spent his summer vacations from college on an uncle’s ranch at Pagosa Springs, Colo. In 1930 the uncle, Ira Hubler, died and left the estate to McIntosh. During forty years of Hubler’s reign on the ranch no woman was ever known to be on the property.

That among the radio artists who are devoting a considerable portion of their daily schedule to the study of dancing is Helen Gilligan, former prima donna of “Hold Everything,” “Strike Up the Band” and “Rain or Shine.” Miss Gilligan, whose soprano voice is heard on the “Paramount on Parade” broadcasts over Columbia, spends three hours a day with a “hooping” instructor.

That Ruth Catterson, star of the stage and speaking screen, soon may appear regularly on a broadcast series of programs, NBC officials indicate.

That a lucrative contract is not a sufficient lure to draw Jimmy Walker to the NBC studios for a series of sponsored broadcasts. The popular New York mayor recently declined an offer which would have made him one of the highest paid broadcasters in the business.

That despite the fact that she plays the part of Joan, a happily married woman in the NBC daily sketch “Raising Junior,” Aline Barry receives on the average of one proposal a week by mail. The young men who propose always mention their assumption that Miss Barry isn’t married in real life. But she is.

That Bob Weidemeyer and his Land O’Cotton orchestra, will entertain Twin City and Northwest radio listeners from KSTP for several months beginning Tuesday, March 10, when his organization replaces Joe Capo and his Egyptian Serenaders at the Boulevards of Paris, smart Twin City night club. Mr. Capo and his musicians have been at the Boulevards five months.

That Ben (“Hope You Like It”) Bernie, who orchestra is heard over WCCO and the Columbia network, recently received a letter from the proprietor of an Atlantic City taxi-cab concern. “My drivers hung around the stand listening to the radio all of the time you are on,” the fan wrote. “Since you’re running my business you might at least dedicate a number to us.” Ben did—he played “You’re Driving Me Crazy.”

That Ethelbert Nevin’s beautiful composition, “My Rosary,” will be sung by the National Singers from KSTP at 6:15 p.m. Sunday, March 8.

That Bill Steimke, of NBC-Jolly Bill and Jane fame, whose weight increases with his popularity, now tips the scales at 240 pounds.

That radio’s littlest actress is Edith Thayer, the Jane McRae of Hank Simmons’s Show Boat. She is four feet eleven inches short.

That Bobby Jones pastes his manuscript on cardboard before going on the air in his weekly broadcast over an NBC-KSTP network. This is to prevent rattling of the paper, Jones has never fully recovered from his nervousness before the microphone.

That Friday, the thirteenth, was no bad letter day in the life of Kelvin Keech, NBC announcer. Keech was arrested for speeding in a new car which he had just purchased two days before. He appeared in traffic court and paid a fine of twenty-five dollars. After leaving the court house he parked his car on Fifth Avenue while he announced several programs. When he came out of the building there was a traffic tag hanging on the door of his shiny new car.

That two important changes in KSTP feature programs have been announced, effective this week. The Dodo Club, heretofore a Monday night program, has been changed to Saturday night from midnight to 2 a.m. The Paramount theater organ program, with Leonard Leigh at the console, has been heard on Friday nights. Hereafter it will be heard Monday nights from 11:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. The change in the Friday night schedule now brings a dance folie from 11:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

KEN MURRAY

KEN MURRAY, celebrated comedian of the stage, screen, and radio, who appeared on Tuesday night's Hennepin Orpheum Radio Hour from KSTP, was recently contracted to appear three times a month on the "Voice of the RKO" which is broadcast over the National Broadcasting System each week. In the "RKO Voice of the Air" in a four-minute monologue. Although his portion of the program was extremely short he received over 10,000 fan letters during the following week. Immediately broadcasting officials contracted him for a new series of programs. Since then Ken has appeared on numerous stations throughout the country.

He made his first appearance in motion pictures in "Half Marriage" with Olive Borden. His most recent screen offering is "Leathernecking." After he completes his present vaudeville tour Ken will return to Hollywood to make pictures for RKO. During this time his weekly broadcasts will originate in Los Angeles, Calif. Ken experienced one of the greatest thrills of his varied career when he participated in the first television broadcast in the United States. This program was broadcast from WMAB in the Daily News Building, Chicago. Ken declares that the most embarrassing moment of his entire career occurred when he was late to a scheduled appearance in "The RKO Voice of the Air" program last year. The program was broadcast direct from the Leviathan steamship anchored in New York harbor. A large group of celebrities were present on the occasion. Ken was taken ill several hours before the program was scheduled to be broadcast, however. Realizing the importance of the occasion Ken remained at his hotel during the entire day and prepared to go to the ship in a taxi a few minutes before the beginning of the program. His taxi was delayed by several freight trains, and in order to avoid any further delay his cab driver drove along the tracks and crossed in back of one of the trains. Continuing on his way he arrived at the boat without further mishap. Upon arriving at the studio, however, the closing strains of the RKO program reached his ears. The director of the program greeted him as he entered the studio. Ken realized the futility of saying he had been unable to appear on the program because of illness. That would have been the natural alibi, he said. He gave no alibi, merely saying he was sorry he did not arrive in time for the program. To his surprise he was received graciously, adding to his discomfort.

Maurice Chevalier to Have More Time on Air

Friends of Maurice Chevalier, debonair French stage and screen star, guest artist of the Chase & Sanborn program through KSTP at 7:15 p.m. Sunday, March 8, will hear him in a longer program beginning Sunday. The program will go on the air at 7:15 p.m. and continue until 8 p.m., instead of the 30-minute broadcast heretofore.

Chevalier will continue to sing successes from his recent sound pictures, and also selections which were favorites of his French audiences. He will continue to introduce his numbers with a brief, characteristic monologue.

Dave Rubloff's orchestra will assist Chevalier on the program.

CARROLL GIBBONS, COMPOSER, ON WONDER BAKERS' PROGRAM

Carroll Gibbons, popular composer who is more at home on Picadilly Circus in London than in New York's Tin Pan Alley, will be guest artist on the Happy Wonder Bakers' program from KSTP at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 10.

"Doc" Sigmund Spaeth, pianist, monologist and master of ceremonies on the program, will introduce Mr. Gibbons, and Jack Parker, tenor, will sing Gibbons' song hit, "Garden in the Rain," with the accompaniment of Frank Black and his orchestra.

Mr. Gibbons, who also is a pianist of note, did his first composing in 1921. In 1922 he and Rudy Vallee went to England where Gibbons remained for several years as orchestra leader for the Savoy Hotel in London.

Other features on the program will include "Hallelujah" from the musical comedy and talkie success "Hit the Deck," by vocal trio and orchestra, and "Dear Old Pal of Mine" by the Singing Violins.
RUDY VALLEE AND FRANCES LANGFORD

Rudy Vallee and his orchestra, while on tour, stopped at stations WFLA-WSUN, Clearwater, Florida, associated stations of the National Broadcasting Company, to broadcast the weekly Fleischmann hour over the network. In the studio Vallee heard a girl singing, and upon inquiring who she was Miss Frances Langford, heard over WFLA-WSUN. He immediately decided to make her guest artist on his program. Rudy and Miss Langford are shown above discussing the program.
Creator of Kewpies to be Heard from WCCO

ROSE O'NEIL

Artist, poet, novelist, creator of Kewpies, who will be heard in the "Pequet Personalities" program on WCCO, will broadcast for Pequot Mills, Salem, Mass., from WCCO at 9:15 a.m. Thursday.

ATWATER KENT HOUR

How poetry and drama receive their most striking expression in song will be demonstrated by Elizabeth Rethberg, leading dramatic soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, in the Atwater Kent program from KSTP at 8:15 p.m. Monday, March 8. Josef Parnack will lend the concert orchestra.

The young Metropolitan prima donna, who has been one of the regular artists of the Atwater Kent hour, has not only been awarded a gold medal for having the most perfect soprano voice known today but is credited in Europe and America with being one of the greatest interpreters of music on the operatic stage. Born in Bohemia she made her first operatic appearance in Dresden at the age of nineteen and has scored notable successes in every operatic center of the world.

DICK LONG

Popular Northwest Band Leader

Years ago, about the time the suspension bridge was in the height of its glory in Minneapolis, someone decided the city should provide a band to play in the parks. Immediately a call went out for musicians with the specifications that said musicians must have at least obtained their majority in years if not in musical experience. Living in the Mill City at that time there was a youthful prodigy by the name of Dick Long. He played a trumpet which was just about as big as he was. He decided here was his opportunity for fame, but as he did not approach the required age for the park musicians by several years, he was at a loss as to what to do. Finally he succeeded in making way with a pair of his father's trousers. By turning them up at the knees he prevented too great a portion of them from dragging on the ground, and in this costume made his application.

Whether it was his enthusiasm or his unique get up that won over the bandmaster has never been known, but anyway Dick obtained his first professional musical job. Since that time he has become one of the best known musicians of the Northwest. He has conducted orchestras in various theaters, leading hotels, played with the Minneapolis Symphony and has the distinction of being the first dance band director to broadcast in the Northwest over the old station.

THE EMPIRE BUILDERS

OVER KSTP

HARVEY HAYS AND LUCILLE HUSTING

HERE is one of the best known characters in radio dramas, Harvey Hays, the "Old Timer" of Empire Builders, with his leading lady, Miss Lucille Hustine, in one of the thrilling western playlets. The pose seems a little out of character, but Lucille is not being pursued by the Old Timer, as the picture might suggest. She has merely tilted her head to give Harvey full possession of the "mike"—just a little matter of radio technique. In a few seconds the order will be reversed, but you'll have to take our word for that.

Both come to radio from the legitimate stage, Mr. Hays having played various roles on Broadway and in road shows, and Miss Hustine, after graduating from stock companies, with Walker Whiteside and William Hodge.

Miss Lucille Hustine, a real daughter of the Northwest, a leading lady for the Empire Builders' Program of the Great Northern Railway Company, heard over KSTP each Monday at 9:30 p.m., was born and reared at Fargo, North Dakota, where she received her early dramatic training. She is the daughter of M. R. Hustine, formerly a well-known Fargo newspaper man, and retains a wide acquaintance in the North Dakota metropolis.

The Empire Builders' program originates in the Chicago studios of the National Broadcasting Company.

The program for Monday, March 9, will reveal how Huangman's Creek, near Spokane, Washington, got its name. The story is a stirring drama of the early story and revolves around the romance of an Indian maiden and a white guide. It has historical background in the defeat of Colonel Steptoe's forces by the Indians at Steptoe Butte.

The drama provides an exceptional role for Miss Huston, whose ancestry includes LaFarreres, the famous Me-morization editor, and Scudern Jansen, French fur trader who founded Milwaukee. Harvey Hays, as the Old Timer, and Don meeche, as Williams, each 12-year-old other features players. The musical background has been arranged by Joseph Koester, conductor of the Great Northern orchestra.

The story was written by Ida Mina Jones of Spokane, Washington, and won first place in a radio story contest conducted by KHQ of Spokane.

Feature Programs Over WLB

Dr. W. C. Coffey, director of the department of Agriculture, of the University of Minnesota, and Miss Julio O. Newton, state home demonstration editor, are scheduled to present talks on the University Farm Hour program from WLB, the university station, on Wednesday, March 11, from 12:30 to 1:00. Staff members at University Farm will also present talks on the farm programs on Monday and Friday.

A feature of the week from WLB will be the broadcast of the Minnesota-Oklahoma basketball game on Monday night. On Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, a 15-minute program will be given by the committee planning the annual student-alumni banquet in the College of Education. Following this program, Miss Kate M. Henn,

The Two Ernies

Just as companionable as they seem in this picture are these two entertainers who have been a regular feature on the Town Market Furniture programs from WDGY for nearly five years. Five years is a long time, and in the instance of Ernie Wille and Ernie Trapp these years have been rich in genuine harmony, both musically and in their relationship.

The two Ernies entertain from station WDGY with guitar, mandolin, ukelele and harmonica, and with vocal duets and solos. Versatility is their middle name, for their repertory ranges all the way from popular ballads and hilly-billy songs to classical selections. Their half hour of varied program is broadcast every Tuesday at 7 o'clock.

Curtis Hotel Maintains Miniature Radio Station

When the management of the Curtis Hotel established the slogan "The Guest Is King," they meant just that and more. Every convenience which can possibly be accorded the visiting guest is extended to them at this leading Northwest hotel.

When radio first became popular, other hotels installed various trick machines whereby the guest inserted his coin in the "music box" and the instrument sent back in return to the listening guest whatever type of music it happened to choose, not caring whether it was suitable to the ear of the listener or not.

But the management of the Curtis hotel, in continuing to pave the way as a leading hotel of the Northwest, installed its own radio station on the thirteenth floor of the hotel, in three powerful receiving sets to bring in the leading programs on the air, and then wired the entire hotel so that this music could be sent to each respective room.

The job was finished and a new attachment installed in each room, giving the guest or in this case, the listening guest, a choice of any of three programs, adjusted to his own liking.

This miniature radio station on the roof of the hotel is the only one of its kind in the Northwest and brings in programs to suit the Easterner, those who come from the South, Canadian, foreigners, and those from the Pacific coast, satisfying the host of likes in the way of radio entertainment.

Two full-time operators, Paul Baehr, who handles the daytime broadcasts, and Jack Hannah, who works the evening programs, maintain this station, opening it to their guests at the Curtis Hotel at 8 a.m. each weekday and continuing until midnight, and on Sunday, the programs open at 10 a.m. and continue for the same period of time.

This station brings in programs of KSTP and WCCO, the two high-powered major stations of the Northwest, in addition to picking up other programs from WLW, WMQ, southern stations, eastern stations and those on the west coast.

BENG’S “WHITE CAPS”

A program which has attained immense popularity with listeners all over the country is the remote broadcast of Beng’s White Caps who transmit sizzling rhythm and syncopation to tickle the musical palate of dance enthusiasts. This dance band may be heard every evening from WHRM from 10:30 to 11:00 p.m., 11:30 to 12:00 p.m., and 1:00 to 1:30 a.m. Beng’s White Caps are featured artists at Dan Morarity’s Oak Grove Club.

Beng’s White Caps have installed a correspondence department to handle the large volume of mail they received daily requesting musical selections from the orchestra, pictures of the boys, etc. They have received letters from every state in the union, many parts of Canada and Mexico, and they feel they are as well known over the air as any radio orchestra in existence.

The story of the career of Beng’s White Caps is one conquest and success from the start. They are Minnesota musicians hailing originally from Red Wing. When the orchestra was first organized their popularity was instantaneous locally and it wasn’t very long before they were looking for new fields to conquer. The summer season of 1928 found them in Detroit Lakes for a four months stay. Their popularity at this famous resort led to offers from New York. The orchestra accepted an offer from the Russian Night Club in New York City for a six months engagement. It was in this famous resort that Dan Morarity first heard the boys play and finally induced them to come to play in Minneapolis. The fact that Minneapolis was so close to their home town of Red Wing was a factor in bringing the boys to the Oak Grove Country Club, which in turn makes it possible for WHRM to present their programs to the listeners.

LESTER EVERS

Lester Evers, lyric tenor, presents ballad and popular song recitals from WDGY, and the rich, appealing quality of this soloist's voice is winning him many friends in Radioland. Lester Evers' voice resounded in western theaters and show houses before he came to Minneapolis to send it out over the immovable expanse of ether waves. He is twenty-one years old, has brown hair and there is an indefinable twinkle in the deep blue of his eyes. His programs from WDGY are 3:45 p.m. Mondays and Fridays.

Philharmonic Orchestra of the Twin Cities

The Philharmonic Orchestra of the Twin Cities, under the direction of Albert Rudd, will make its radio debut from WCCO at 8 p.m. Sunday, March 8, in a program of popular classics, opening with "The March of the Bojaters" by Halverson. This will be followed by the Overture to Gomes' opera "Il Guarany," one of the brightest and most stirring pieces in all musical literature.

The feature of the program will be an Norwegian novelty, "I Sjol Galette's Gletinn" (Last Year While Herding the Goats), played by the string section of the orchestra.

Victor Herbert's delightful waltz, "Ocean Breeze," and a southern rhapsody, "Virginia" by Haydn-Wood will bring the program to a close.

WLAG. When WCCO took over that station Dick and his orchestra continued to be favorite features with the radio audience. Dick Long’s Club specialized on any type of music, although he is best known as a dance band leader. He is one of the best violinists in the Northwest and each week conducts his orchestra through everything from old time fiddle numbers to selections from grand opera. At the present time it is back to WCCO during the dinner hour on Mondays, and from 11:00 to 12:00 p.m. Fridays, when he presents an hour of concert music. His orchestra, besides being lavish of regular listeners from coast to coast, who write every week, offering suggestions and requests. Their chief comment is that it is a great pleasure to tune in on this program at a night that is devoted to concert music, instead of the jazz ordinarily heard at night.
