For OCTOBER 1980

Real People.....

Twin Cities, September 13, 1980—Shown above are four listeners doing their thing for the new KQ92 "Contest" TV commercials which will be showing on local TV stations. From left to right, the future "stars" include Terry Hodge, Steve Garren, Rebecca Burneck and Brad Schlaeger. They and five others spent a Saturday afternoon at Emcom Studios performing our lip-synch TV spot. Each of the 30-second commercials features a surprise ending. Watch for them ... coming soon!

SONGWRITER ALBUM DEBUTS

Paul Stark, Twin Tone Records. Joe Voyles of Trax and Tac Hammer of KQ92 have a personal note on the jacket of the new SONGWRITERS album: "This record contains twelve songs selected from more than 760 entries to the 1980 Songwriters' Contest..." Among the judges who listened to over 38 hours of tapes was KQ92's Dave Dworkin. The songs reflect a variety of local composing talent, including humor. Included are the Platons, Sterling, Phil & The Blanks, the Fingerprints, the Ben Day Dots, the Liars, the Twin City Terrors, as well as songs by Dale Seltzer, Chris Moon & John Rivers, Bret Gardner, Jay Shogren and Bob Ekstrand. Profits, if any, will be used to support future music projects for local musicians and the music community. Available now at your local favorite record store. A joint project of KQ92, Trax and Twin Tone Records.

PICTURES ON RADIO—STEREO ON TV!

TV-Stereo simulcasts return to KQ92 and KTCA-TV, Channel 2, this Fall when we present a stereo-TV simulcast of the SOUNDSTAGE programs on Saturday nights at Midnight, starting Saturday, October 11. You tune in Channel 2 for picture, turn down the sound and turn on KQ92 FM for something a little different in music. Among the groups to be featured are Graham Parker & The Rumour, the Doobie Brothers, Journey and Kenny Loggins. KQ92's Classic Album Hour will be moved to 1:00 AM, following the simulcast.
