Heifetz ‘Phone Hour’ Guest Mon.

$567,190 Fishing Contest Passes Half-Way Mark

VIOLINIST TO APPEAR IN ALL PROGRAM

JACQUES HEIFETZ

Joachim Heifetz, world famed virtuoso of the violin, will be heard over KSTP’s program, "Voice of Firestone," Monday, July 29, 7:00 p.m., in a program of favorite violin concert pieces.

Eleanor Steber
To Guest Star on ‘Voice’ Monday

Eleanor Steber, extraordinaire soprano star of the Metropolitan Opera House, will be heard over Firestone’s program, "Voice of Firestone," Monday, July 29, 9:00 p.m., in an encore program of the famous soprano’s repertoire.

Eleanor Steber, famous guest of "Voice of Firestone," has been requested by the program for their 9th year. Miss Steber is known to American audiences from concert and recital work, and has been heard on radio programs and concert halls throughout the country. Miss Steber has been heard in concert work throughout the country.

"BARN DANCE" SWINGS OUT IN CHA, MINN.

The KSTP “Sunset Valley Barn Dance,” will be heard over KSTP Sunday nights, 8:30 to 9:15 p.m., with Olaf Kehl and the gang, who will swing out Caution, Caution from the barnyard, and show in Chaska, Minn., tonight, July 28. The barn dance will start at 8:30 p.m. and will be aired at 8:00 and 10:15 p.m., with instructions. Families of Chaska and vicinity have been invited and may obtain tickets at the door of the show.

"DANCE" TO BE THE MAIN EVENT AT "JACQUES HEIFETZ"

Miss Steber, a frequent guest of "Voice of Firestone," has been requested by the program for their 9th year. Miss Steber is known to American audiences from concert and recital work, and has been heard on radio programs and concert halls throughout the country. Miss Steber has been heard in concert work throughout the country.

"FAMILY’S PAGE GILMAN IS ON LECTURE TOUR"

Page Gilman, who is heard over KSTP Sundays at 1:30 p.m., as Jack Barbour in "One Man Family," has been a keynote speaker on the lecture tour which will take him to numerous radio stations throughout the country.

Page Gilman, who has been heard on KSTP, is a well-known personality. With his unique and humorous style, he has been a favorite with American audiences. He has been heard on radio programs and concert halls throughout the country. Page Gilman has been heard in concert work throughout the country.

"SMITH SOLES FOR "HARVEST" SUNDAY"

Winifred Smith, coloratura soprano, will be heard over KSTP Sunday at 8:30 p.m., in the program "Havest," and will talk on "The Gift of America" on the program.

Miss Smith will offer two selections, "The Rose" and "Jewel," with Victor Herbert’s "Harvest Moon," and Victor Herbert’s "The Tambourine Girl." Smith will perform with the orchestra in accompaniment of Miss Smith and has also performed with the orchestra in "The Gift of America" on the program.

Howard Barlow will conduct the orchestra in accompaniment of Miss Smith and has also performed with the orchestra in "The Gift of America" on the program.

IT'S SPORT! — Bill Sterne’s call for interviewing local leaders of the business world on KSTP Fridays at 8:30 p.m. — and he loves his job. Sometimes he gets the worlds mixed up, but never the figures. That’s why we see him interviewing one of Flinnum’s loveliest, Carol Bruce, on one of his programs.

BILL GETS AROUND!

"FARM NEWS TIME" WITH CAL KARNSTEDT — 7:15 A.M. DAILY
All-Girl Orchestra Offers Varied Program Sunday

Several times per week, the KSTP Radio Reporter presents an informative and entertaining weekly newsletter, offering readers insights into various topics and events. This particular issue focuses on the All-Girl Orchestra, highlighting their unique repertoire and the diverse program they offer on Sunday. The text is written in a clear, concise manner, ensuring that readers can easily follow the events and activities described. The newsletter also includes the names of key individuals, such as Tommy Dorsey, who praises the orchestra's talent and underscores their status as a pioneering ensemble in the music industry. This edition of the KSTP Radio Reporter serves as a snapshot of the cultural richness and dynamism of the time, showcasing the All-Girl Orchestra as a symbol of innovation and excellence. Through this newsletter, the audience is invited to explore the vibrant world of music, with particular emphasis on the contributions of talented women in the industry. The newsletter concludes with a section on Tommy Dorsey’s glowing review, emphasizing the orchestra’s role as a cornerstone of musical progress. Overall, this issue of the KSTP Radio Reporter exemplifies the commitment to providing engaging content that reflects the broader cultural landscape of the era.