LISTEN GOOD by Charlie Van Dyke

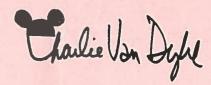

First I'd like to squelch those ugly rumors that our morning news man has been undergoing silicone treatments. Donald K. Martin has categorically denied this but hinted he will soon have a patent for his new invention that will make chest protectors obsolete in major league baseball.

Hope to see you in the next few days over on the West Bank when they honor the founding father of Dinkytown . . . John Dink.

On the music scene . . . sure to gain momentum in the weeks to come is Birds of a Feather, composed by Joe South and The Raiders newest effort. The Carpenters, Rod Stewart and The Osmonds headline some of the favorites on our new Listen List.

Dr. Frank Stein, star of WDGY's Dr.'s House Call and Officer Shultz, star of WDGY's Traffic Vatch send along their hellos. Hope you'll join all of us on the morning show.

Who is that mysterious person on the cover of our Listen List??? I'll never tell.

IT'S HERE!

Another explosion of sound and soul. This album will make you realize there's much more life in your body than you thought.
